

The Auburn Public Library Welcomes
World Renowned Photographer and Author Ron Rosenstock
Photography of the World

Discover the beauty of the world through the stunning photography of Ron Rosenstock.

Ron has traveled the world, creating images of its people and nature since the 1960s, culminating in a stunning array of many incarnations, from vivid colors to black and white, and from early dawn to infrared dusk.

Ron has exhibited his work in more than 100 shows worldwide and is featured in numerous permanent exhibitions including the Fogg Art Museum at Harvard, the Worcester Art Museum, the National Museum of Iceland, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the International Center of Photography.

Ron developed his view of the world from his communications with Ansel Adams, and taught photography at Clark University for more than 30 years. He also leads photography tours worldwide.

Ron's visit is a digital presentation of his spectacular images from around the world. Ron will also offer his six photography books for purchase and author signing.

Auburn Public Library | Merriam Room

Thursday October 18th | 6 – 7 / 7:30 pm

Register from our website, or call or visit the Library

www.auburnlibrary.org | 369 Southbridge Street, Auburn, MA | 508.832.7790 | Dr. Jean E. Collins, Director